Be careful: sometimes a debt collector will file a "Motion for Summary Judgment," depending on what you put in your answer that you file with the court. In a court hearing, the judge will decide. I've seen cases where the only evidence that the creditor put in front of the judge was the consumer's failure to respond to the Requests for Admission. A debt collector or creditor may decide that it is not worth it to take your personal property if your interest is close to $4,500. To be exempt, one item cannot be worth more than $600. If you still aren't sure if your income is exempt, talk to a lawyer. If you have any questions if your tools or work equipment are exempt, talk to a lawyer right away.

There's no rule against this, but they have no more powers than someone ringing up on the phone, and they have to give you notice of the date and time of the visits. If someone has taken more than they should from your wages, you only have 10 business days to file court paperwork to ask for it back.

Some businesses have even misrepresented their status as nonprofit organizations. And if you want help, contact a nonprofit credit counseling agency and ask about enrolling in a debt management program. They are only allowed to contact you during certain times.

But, there are risks and costs to selling a used car. Remember, different rules apply if you owe money on your car loan. This includes money owed for medical care, charge accounts or car purchases. You can sue for damages, like lost wages and medical bills. It caters to all commercial accounts and medical billing accounts, using a four-step system to collect funds from debtors.
