Australia's Pat Cummins' successor, as he marries longevity with success across all formats and sets his sights on further records. One such performance stands out where he took a pivotal role in a 28-run win at Bristol. In this match, he showcased his skills alongside fellow fast bowler Josh Curran. Their combined efforts put D'Arcy Short's team to shame as they struggled to keep up with the Aussies' rapid pace. The victory was significant, and it marked another milestone in Cummins' illustrious career. His impressive performance has solidified his position among the best fast bowlers in the world, a feat that only a select few have achieved. Australia vs India, Border-Gavaskar Trophy: India's Dominant Win at the SCG The Indian cricket team secured a convincing 157-run victory over Australia at the Sydney Cricket Ground (SCG), marking their first win of the series. India's impressive batting performance saw them reach 150 runs in just 35.2 overs, with Rishabh Pant and Ravindra Jadeja contributing crucial half-centuries to their team's total. The Australian innings was plagued by inconsistent batting displays from key players, including Steven Smith, who struck down for the third time in the match. In a remarkable display of discipline and perseverance, Australia's bowlers struggled to contain India's explosive top-order batsmen, with Jasprit Bumrah taking seven wickets to claim a memorable haul. The Indian bowlers demonstrated excellent skill and coordination throughout the innings, limiting Australia to 157/10 on the final day.
