There are hundreds of free action movies online that you can stream in just a few minutes time from the comfort of your own home through a free movie site, or on the go from your phone or tablet with a free movie app. Most movie sites let you browse through the films by subcategories, most popular, and most recent added. This makes it very easy to find something to enjoy immediately. Crackle has a large assortment of dozens of action movies and TV shows. You can see the films recommended by the site, view them all on one page, and filter the list by the date in which they were added to the list. The following are just a few of the movies we've been able to watch: Journey to the Center of the Earth, Desert Saints, Eye See You, Never Back Down: No Surrender, and Bad Lieutenant: Port of Call New Orleans. Yidio has lots of movies in several genres, and from many online sources. You can filter the movies by title and rating, such as R, G, or PG-13. Choose Free as the source and Action from the genre section to find movies such as Superman, Apocalypse, Need for Speed, 300, Transformers: Revenge of the Fallen, Man on Fire, and The 5th Wave. Vudu is a great source for free action movies because there are high-quality options and lots of movies you're probably already familiar with. A few of the most-watched free action films here include Jurassic Island, Braven, Conspiracy, Monster Family, Accident Man, The Breed, No Escape, and Army of One. Some movies on Vudu are available only at a cost. To make sure you're viewing only the free ones, be sure to check the Free movies only box or look for titles that say Free With Ads. Lots of other free action movies are available through Popcornflix. Some that we've seen include Raven, Ramblin' Man, Blitz, Strays, 2012: Ice Age, 5th Passenger, 200 MPH, A.I. 187, and Absolution. While there are hundreds of titles here, you can't sort the list by popularity or recently added, so you have to just scroll through it or search by title. Another source with hundreds of options is Tubi. This site is easy to use, offers HD movies, includes subtitles, and works in full screen mode. The last time we visited Tubi, action movies like these were available for free streaming: Déjà Vu, Fool's Gold, Wyatt Earp, Exodus: Gods and Kings, Mortal Kombat, Set It Off, Gone in 60 Seconds, Blade II, and The Bourne Ultimatum. Although the Roku Channel looks like a Roku-only streaming service, it runs from a computer, too. There's an entire section for action movies like The Burning Plain, Unhinged, Boon, Jungle, A Tale of Two Guns, Good People, and Red Dawn. There are thousands upon thousands of videos on YouTube, along with movie trailers, TV shows, and even movies. However, because the movies aren't categorized by genre, you're unable to filter them to find just all the action films. A couple action movies we've seen on YouTube include Independence Day, The Transporter, Die Hard 2: Die Harder, Taxi, Annihilation, Congo, Premium Rush, and Lords Of Dogtown, though there are many more to uncover. Amazon's Freevee has tons of free movies, many that you've heard of, but also some original titles. There aren't any sorting options for just the action movies, so you'll have to flip through them manually. A few examples include Left Behind, The Hive, The Angry Birds Movie, Spy, Young Guns, The Huntsman: Winter's War, The Longest Ride, 1917, Pitch Black, and The Hunt. Pluto TV has an always-on, live TV channel showing action movies all day, every day. You can watch these movies right now on your computer, TV, or mobile device without creating a user account. Another way to find free movies here is through their long list of on-demand movies. This is different from the live TV option because you can start, stop, fast-forward, etc., just like you can when watching a recorded movie. A few of the on-demand action titles we've seen include The 6th Day, The Devil's Own, Half Past Dead, The Art of War, Congo, The International, The Score, The Four Feathers, Ca$h, Sinners and Saints, Maximum Impact, and 6 Ways to Die.
