Learn More A long-time Virginia resident and graduate of George Mason University, John Sabo has been selling and leasing commercial real estate for over 25 years. His focus is land, industrial units, retail, and office space in Northern Virginia. John's client list ranges from large public companies to smaller local companies to individual owners. His tenure in commercial real estate and the vast network he has developed over the years give him an edge when representing his clients. As a specialist in commercial brokerage, John excels at matching owners and buyers or tenants. Clients benefit from this knowledge base and his commitment to ensuring their objectives are achieved with skilled representation. John has developed numerous properties in the Washington, D.C. Metro market, each posing a unique set of challenges. His geographic specialization includes Fairfax County, Fairfax, VA, Falls Church, VA, Reston, VA, and Vienna, VA. This experience provides key insight into helping clients navigate the municipal approval process and anticipate unexpected roadblocks in a transaction. He is a former Chair and Commissioner of the City of Fairfax Economic Development Authority, a board member of two local start-ups, and active with local charities. His team is the #2 Commercial Team in the US in the Berkshire Hathaway network.
