Roblox is so amazing. Its perfect for playing with friends and theres NO WAY youll get bored. There are so many amazing games made by other Roblox players. Ok, now for suggestions. Robux on here is a bit pricey, and the math doesnt add up correctly. You can spend 50 dollars for 4,500 and pay 100 dollars for 10,000. But, if you buy the 50 dollar one twice, which adds up to spending the same amount of money as buying the 10,000 Robux, you only get 9,000 instead of 10,000. But back to Robux being pricey, 100 dollars for 10,000 Robux is a bit much. You should probably downgrade quite a lot, say maybe 1/2 or 3/4 that price. Also, I have a small suggestion for Roblox chat and how you can get banned. Getting banned for saying something like pog or im not a furry is not a great reason to be banned. Also, in text chat, could you make it a little less restricted? When I say this, I mean instead of making the entire thing tags, maybe just the word the filter doesnt like. The filter can be annoying when you are in a role-play and you or the other player is trying to say something, and then its just tags. I really, really suggest making the filter less annoying. And lastly, this is more so linked to Roblox Studio, could you make it so that those on mobile can create games and so that inside of games like please donate we can get robux from other people? Alright. Thats all I have, thank you for reading. Roblox uses cookies to offer you a better experience.
