To become a BIG Games partner, you must have a YouTube channel with 15k+ subs and/or 10k+ views per video, or a Twitch channel with 1k+ followers and/or 30+ average viewers. There is no guarantee of acceptance, and the application process can take up to three weeks to receive a response. You can submit an application on the BIG Games website. The list of BIG Games partners includes over 100 entries. The requirements for new partners have changed over time, and some partners may not meet the current minimum subscriber number. The partner status can be withdrawn if no more videos are published or if there is verifiable misconduct. As a big games partner, you'll receive special perks, but it's essential to note that meeting the requirements doesn't guarantee acceptance. You'll need to own a YouTube channel with 15k+ subs and/or 10k+ views per video or a Twitch channel with 1k+ followers and/or 30+ average viewers. If you're accepted, you can fill out an application on the developer's official site. However, there doesn't seem to be a bespoke application for the process, and it appears that clicking on the 'Contact Us' button in the top-right side of the home screen will take you to where you need to leave your message. There are currently over 100 BIG Games partners, including some who have been appointed as partners recently. The benefits of being a big games partner include unique perks that'll make you feel like a VIP. Becoming a Big Games partner in Pet Simulator 99 requires meeting certain requirements, which include having a strong gaming community, consistent updates, and engaging content. The developer is looking for players who can help promote the game and contribute to its growth. As a potential applicant, it's essential to highlight your achievements and qualifications. To increase your chances of becoming a partner, focus on building a robust network within the Pet Simulator 99 community. This includes collaborating with other players, creating engaging content, and fostering a positive atmosphere. Keep in mind that meeting the requirements does not guarantee partnership. The developer's decision is final, and it's crucial to be patient and persistent. ###Becoming a Partner on YouTube and Twitch: A Step-by-Step Guide ===== Are You an aspiring content creator looking to take your Channel to the next level? Do you dream of having a partner tag by your name and the ability to sign pets in Pet Simulator X? If so, you're in the right place. In this article, we will guide you through the process of becoming a partner on YouTube and Twitch. Whether you prefer making videos or streaming live, we've got you covered. Becoming a Partner on YouTube ----- The first step towards becoming a partner on YouTube is understanding the requirements. As of now, YouTube requires content creators to have at least 15,000 subscribers or 10,000+ views per video. While this may seem like a daunting number, don't be discouraged. Tips for Growing on YouTube ----- To increase your subscriber count and views, it's essential to implement effective growth strategies. One of the best ways to do this is by consistently creating engaging and high-quality videos. By hopping on trends and providing valuable content, you can attract a larger audience. Additionally, consider optimizing your titles, thumbnails, and descriptions to increase visibility in search results. Creating Engaging Videos ----- While it's important, don't stress too much about the length of your videos. Both shorter and longer videos can perform well if they provide value to the viewers. However, aiming for around eight minutes can increase the chances of your video being recommended to a wider audience. Optimizing Titles, Thumbnails, and Descriptions ----- The title, thumbnail, and description of your video are crucial in attracting viewers. Make sure to include the keywords related to Pet Simulator X in your title and place them near the beginning. When it comes to thumbnails, simplicity is key. Avoid adding too much text or unnecessary elements that can distract viewers. Being Unique and Authentic ----- While it's tempting to copy what others are doing, it's important to stand out and be unique. Find your own style and niche within the Pet Simulator X community. For example, if trading videos are popular, try adding a spin-off to make it more interesting. Do what you genuinely enjoy, and your passion will shine through in your content. Becoming a Partner on Twitch ----- If you prefer live streaming over recorded videos, Twitch partnership might be the right path for you. To become a Twitch partner, you need at least 1,000 followers on your channel. While the number may seem smaller compared to YouTube, growing on Twitch can be challenging. The Challenges of Growing on Twitch ----- Twitch, although a popular platform, has its own set of challenges. With fewer users compared to YouTube, gaining followers on Twitch can be more difficult. However, if you enjoy streaming for hours daily, it may align with your goals and capabilities. Interaction with your audience and be willing to put in the effort. Twitch partnership can be a good avenue. You must focus on providing engery and immersive content because number alone do not guarantee a partnership. Submitting the Application Once you meet the requirements for YouTube or Twitch partnership, you can submit your application. For YouTube partnerhip, go to the YouTube Partner Program page and follo the instructions. For Twitch partnerhip, visit the Twitch Creator Dashboard and navigate to the Affiliate/Partner section. Fill out the necessary information and submit your application.
