We offer something special, something unique that sets us apart from the rest. When you book with Voyagers, your vacation isn't just pulled off some shelf. Each tour is custom-made to fit your interests and budget. Love wildlife? Your safari adventure might include close encounters with exotic animals. Foodie at heart? Prepare for culinary delights in hidden local spots. You ask, they deliver. A key aspect of what makes Voyagers different lies in their team's expertise. Destination specialists aren't merely trained; they've lived or traveled extensively within the regions they handle. This means when planning an Amazon river cruise or an expedition to Antarctica, you're getting advice based on firsthand experience - not from some brochure."Because we live here and we've been there," says every specialist at Voyagers Travel Company. Voyagers goes the extra mile to make sure your stay is nothing short of spectacular. You'll get to enjoy lavish accommodations that exude charm and sophistication. Selecting local accommodation suppliers and enforcing strict sustainability criteria also ensures your trip has the least impact on the environment and supports local economies. But what's a luxurious trip without top-notch services? From private airport transfers to personal tour guides, they've got you covered.
