Noisy - everywhere the noise of electric generators and the ditches, the smell worsened by the heat, The rain helped cool us down. Loved all the arguments we had anywhere over drinks in taxis in waiting rooms. People are fed up but don't see a way out. I have a metaphor for Nigeria but it is not tourist material. Lagos is home to me. It is a happy place to be. There is nothing you can't get in Lagos. There is good exposure. Some area may be a little bit dangerous but overall Lagos is the place to be. Didn't get enough time to go around much because of short stay. Food was great. The traffic was bad but if you set out on time, from Ikeja to Victoria Island and Lekki and back is not so bad at the end of the day. There is so many great places to eat in Lagos. There is so much to do and see. If you want excellent customer services, you pay abit extra and you can have world class service at your door step. Dont be disheartened by what is in the media, Lagos is fabulous. I had such a wonderful time! The hotel staff were very respectful and helpful. The buffet was always quite a spread to include both African and continental dishes. The rooms were very quiet and clean. It was pleasant having a 5 star getaway feeling in Nigerian. I would definitely recommend! Lagos is nice and decent . A safe environment's to visit for travellers. I went to deliver a lecture on money laundering for 6 days in Lagos and I enjoyed every minutes of my stay in Lagos. Very welcoming and good ambiance. Adeyinka Abimbola United Kingdom Who haven't been in Africa, can't imagine the reality. Even the better areas are filled with garbage, potholes, not maintained. Heat and humidity is high. Traffic chaotic and time consuming. No reliable public transport. That alone wouldn't be so bad. The worst thing is that you can't walk on the street alone as there is a high risk of being mobbed/killed. You can only sit in the hotel and wait for your departure. Been in Ghana and Togo, where you have your freedom and no bother and felt so much better than here. 9.5 Exceptional 2 reviews The apartment was excellent reminded me a lot of places I've stayed in Los Angeles- the decor and decorations on point - furniture is comfortable and the island kitchen is fire - great place to host small gatherings: place was super clean and had hand sanitizer in the rooms - the facility in general was COVID-19 conscious; 2 balconies with good views; place is in good location close to quality restaurants and bars; security at the facility is excellent; has free wifi as well; has a washer and dryer Me and my best friend came all the way from London and this was our first time in Nigeria and it was excellent!! We loved the room, we loved everything, it was so comfortable and beautiful. The staff are so kind and hospitable. They helped us so much with questions and recommendations. My favorite was the receptionist called "DUBABY" thank you so much for being so nice and understanding. We will surely be back! The breakfast was complimentary and really good. The hotel had a menu of complimentary breakfast which is great so long-term guests wouldn't have to eat the same thing over and over. The location is central, secure, and accessible in V.I. The staff was pleasant enough, I know there is a gym but didn't use it as I stayed for one night. The hotel accepts foreign-denominated cards which is a good plus. Esomchi Ugochukwu United Kingdom Staying at Residency hotel Lagos, was a great experience; the staff were polite and courteous, the environment was top standard and comfortable. I like that it was close to malls and the city in general, breakfast was good and rooms were clean. Will definitely recommend it to any and everyone and they are sure to see me again on my next trip to Lagos I can only rate them as excellent-everything went well from location to staff attitude to facilities. it is very good hotel. the staff are as always, super polite and helpful. clean room, warm supper décor. prompt to meet your needs and complain. 6.8 Review score 68 reviews Thank's to Philipp and his whole team for providing excellent service in this great Hotel in Lagos. The spacey rooms are clean, the breakfast offers a wide selection of food and the gym is amazing. We would come back any time! Clean room and bathroom. Very courteous and helpful staff. I was a bit skeptical because of the price deal. After settling in, I realized it truly was a good deal in a small but decent hotel in Ikoyi, Lagos Nigeria The staff was really friendly and respectful and extraordinarily helpful. The pool is a nice place to hang out and the location of the hotel is pretty great. The price is really good for that area. Top notch facilities and I got the room I requested for with my preferred view and the hotel has standard safety measures in place to protect the staff and guests Parkview Astoria is a nice hotel with great staff. The staff are very nice from the receptionist to the cleaner, room service assistant, to the bartender. 8.3 Very good 141 reviews The food was awesome and they had American and Nigerian dishes. The staff were accommodating and friendly for the most part.
