Photo Courtesy: Pixar/IMDb Editor's Note: Many of the films included in this article were postponed due to COVID-19 concerns. In light of these events, we've created another list that details some of the best and most talked about movies of 2021. Looking back, 2019 really capped off 10 years' worth of cinema with a bang. Mega-blockbuster sagas that spanned years came to a close, thanks to Avengers: Endgame and Star Wars: Episode IX—The Rise of Skywalker. Meanwhile, some of the decade's best films, like Parasite, and worst — sorry, Cats — made indelible marks on our pop culture collective consciousness. With a few hits like Birds of Prey already in theaters, it's time to look ahead. Not only are these upcoming pictures exciting, they're also kicking off a brand-new decade in filmmaking. Here are the must-see movies of 2020. If you had told us five years ago that John Krasinski — a.k.a. Jim from The Office — would write, direct and co-star in one of the best horror movies of the decade, we wouldn't have believed you. However, the filmmaker upended our expectations completely with 2018's A Quiet Place, which stars Krasinski and Emily Blunt as parents who struggle to keep their family alive in a world overrun by monsters who use sound to find their victims. Photo Courtesy: Arturo Holmes/WireImage/Getty Images The caveat of this post-apocalyptic world, of course, was that everyone had to remain absolutely quiet at all times, other than whispering in a soundproof basement. The detail became more than a gimmick: It added an incredible amount of thrills and tension to the story. This year, the sequel is back with seemingly more dialogue and action sequences than the first film. Blunt will reprise her role, joined by new castmates Djimon Hounsou and Cillian Murphy. The original release date was March 20, but now the release date is TBD. If you saw Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker in IMAX, you were probably treated to an extended preview for Tenet — on top of the standard 25 minutes of regular movie previews. At the time, we were a little annoyed by the film's long-running prologue, but, after seeing the trailer, there's certainly some promise to Tenet, which is Inception director Christopher Nolan's latest offering. Photo Courtesy: Putrul Chukrut/SOPA Images/LightRocket via Getty Images Filmed for release in IMAX, 35mm and 70mm, Tenet aims to be a feast for the eyes, much like Nolan's anxiety-inducing war epic Dunkirk. The film stars Golden Globe nominee John David Washington (BlackKkLansman) as a secret agent who is tasked with preventing World War III — through time travel. (Sounds like a standard Nolan, mind-bending premise to us!) Washington is joined by a standout cast, including Robert Pattinson, Elizabeth Debicki, Clémence Poésy, Himesh Patel, Kenneth Branagh, Michael Caine and others. For quite some time, Natasha Romanoff, a.k.a. Black Widow (Scarlett Johansson), was the only woman on the Avengers squad, and she is more than deserving of a standalone movie. Finally, Marvel (and Disney) is ready to give the ex-KGB-agent-turned-assassin-turned-Avenger a chance to shine on her own, without playing second fiddle. Black Widow is a prequel film, taking place between 2016's Captain America: Civil War and 2018's Avengers: Infinity War. Photo Courtesy: Black Widow/IMDb In Civil War, Captain America and Iron Man find themselves divided over the issue of superheroes needing government oversight, which ends in a blow-out brawl. At first, Romanoff sides with Iron Man, but, in the end, she helps Cap escape and then goes into exile. In the film, Romanoff will team up with folks from her past, including fellow Black Widow agents (played by Florence Pugh and Rachel Weisz) and Russian super-soldier Red Guardian (David Harbour). Known for her Grammy-nominated body of music, Janelle Monáe is a multi-hyphenate who excels in every art form. From singing, songwriting and rapping to producing, acting and blazing trails as an activist, Monáe is a bonafide icon. Although she has appeared in huge films like Hidden Figures and the Academy Award-winning Moonlight, Antebellum is the first feature film in which Monáe takes on the leading role. Photo Courtesy: Antebellum/IMDb Antebellum tells the story of successful author Veronica Henley (Monáe), who suddenly finds herself trapped in a "nightmarish reality and must find a way to break free." Produced by Sean McKittrick, who backed films like Get Out and Donnie Darko, Antebellum co-stars Kiersey Clemons (Hearts Beat Loud), Jena Malone (Bastard Out of Carolina) and Academy Award nominee Gabourey Sidibe (Precious, American Horror Story). When the series finale of HBO's game-changing series The Sopranos cut to black mid-scene, audiences had all sorts of reactions. Some viewers thought the ending was brilliant — a nod to the fact that life goes on, beyond the frame of the story — while others were annoyed by the lack of "resolution." Although HBO isn't going to continue the story of the Soprano family beyond that final shot, the network is giving fans a prequel. Photo Courtesy: Jose Perez/Bauer-Griffin/GC Images/Getty Images The Many Saints of Newark takes a page out of The Godfather: Part II's playbook and follows a younger Tony Soprano, who is played by the late James Gandolfini's son, Michael Gandolfini (HBO's The Deuce). Leslie Odom Jr. (Hamilton), Jon Bernthal (The Walking Dead), Ray Liotta (Goodfellas) and Vera Farmiga (Up in the Air) are just some of the many talents who will flesh out young Tony's world. Fans can also rest easy knowing that series creator David Chase is set to produce the crime drama. This upcoming spy film is the 25th installment in the James Bond film saga and features Daniel Craig in his fifth and final outing as the titular M16 agent. The film is being helmed by director Cary Joji Fukunaga, whose wide swath of work includes the 2011 adaptation of Jane Eyre, the acclaimed 2015 drama Beasts of No Nation and the first season of HBO's True Detective, which earned him an Emmy for Outstanding Directing. Photo Courtesy: MLADEN ANTONOV/AFP via Getty Images Behind the scenes, Fleabag's Phoebe Waller-Bridge is co-writing the screenplay. In front of the camera, greats like Ralph Fiennes, Naomie Harris, Ben Whishaw, Jeffrey Wright, Rory Kinnear, Léa Seydoux and Christoph Waltz reprise their roles. In the film, Bond, formerly known as agent 007, comes out of retirement for one last outing against adversary Safin (Academy Award-winner Rami Malek), who fancies himself humanity's savior. This time, Bond is joined by another "00" agent, Nomi, played by Captain Marvel's Lashana Lynch. The drama-thriller Promising Young Woman marks the directorial debut for writer Emerald Fennell, who is best known as the Emmy-nominated showrunner of BBC's Killing Eve. The film stars BAFTA-winner Carey Mulligan (An
